Celebrate great Hispanic milestones, accomplishments, and victories!

Latino Firsts Trailblazers and Milestones in United States History

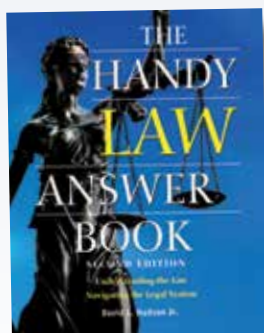

Nicolás Kanellos, Ph.D.

Milestones, victories, and success are not always noticed when they happen. Sometimes an achievement is only recognized years later. Now, with this important book, readers can revel and rejoice in the renowned and lesser-known, barrier-breaking trailblazers in arts, entertainment, business, civil rights, education, government, invention, journalism, religion, science, sports, music, and other fields. An inspiring exploration of groundbreaking individuals and pioneering events, this absorbing book honors the indelible mark Hispanics have made on American history and society, including Brigadier General Richard E. Cavazos, Nobel laureate Gabriela Mistral, actress America Ferrera, playwright Lin-Manuel Miranda, civil rights activist Dolores Huerta, Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen, Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor, president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science Francisco Ayala, artist Jean-Michel Basquiat, weightlifter Sarah Elizabeth Robles, and more than a thousand other notable people and accomplishments.

Nicolás Kanellos, Ph.D. is the Brown Foundation Professor of Hispanic Studies and director of Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Heritage of the United States, the premier center for research on Latino documentary history in the United States. He is the founding publisher of the noted Hispanic literary journal The Americas Review. Dr. Kanellos has authored or contributed to numerous books on Hispanic history, culture, and literature, including Visible Ink Press' Latino Almanac: From Early Explorers to Corporate Leaders as well as Hispanic Literature of the United States: A Comprehensive Reference, and the Handbook of Hispanic Cultures in the United States. His books have won numerous awards, including the ALA's Best Reference Work and selection by Choice to the top 50 outstanding academic books. He resides in Houston, Texas..

The Handy Law Answer Book Second Edition

David L. Hudson Jr., J.D.

From the day of your birth when you get your government-issued birth certificate to finding a job, getting married (or divorced), taking care of children, and paying taxes to planning for your retirement and your estate, the law and your legal rights and responsibilities are an inescapable part of all our lives. From the U.S. Constitution to coping with our court system and from employment law, bankruptcy law, and immigration law to the Bill of Rights, this informative guide answers over 750 of the most important, intriguing, and interesting legal questions. Completely revised and updated for the first time in 15 years, this compelling resource will inform you of the basics of the law and legal principles. Whether you're in your living room or attending law school, it will arm you with the knowledge you need to navigate and understand our system of justice!

David L. Hudson Jr., J.D., is an attorney and law professor at Belmont University's College of Law, a U.S. Constitution scholar, and a fellow for the First Amendment of the Freedom Forum. Hudson earned his undergraduate degree from Duke University and his law degree from Vanderbilt Law School. He speaks widely on Constitutional Law and school law issues. He taught classes at Vanderbilt Law School and the Nashville School of Law, where, in 2018, he was awarded its Distinguished Faculty Award. He also served as a senior law clerk for the Tennessee Supreme Court. Hudson is an author, co-author, or co-editor of more than 40 books, including Visible Ink Press's The Constitution Explained: A Guide for Every American, The Handy Civics Answer Book, and The Handy Supreme Court Answer Book. He writes regularly for the American Bar Association's Preview of United States Supreme Court Cases and ABA Journal. He lives in Nashville, Tennessee.

Stories of dark and depraved paranormal beings and encounters.

Dark Spirits Monsters, Demons, and Devils

Richard Estep

Sometimes the monsters are monsters—swimming the murky waters of Loch Ness, stalking their victims the streets of small-town America, or hunting innocents across the desolate British moors. At other times, the darkness lies within the human soul itself—the falsely accused who were executed for witchcraft in Salem, those hounded to their graves (and beyond) by cruel pursuers, or those cursed by all forms of vile spirits. Then there are the devils and demons lurking in the darkness, capable of possessing and tormenting the living. Master storyteller and seasoned paranormal investigator Richard Estep presents sinister hordes of evil in this fright-filled read. Walk into the abyss of the whispered and veiled legends, the myths and first-person encounters in this absorbing story collection spanning the darkest realms of the paranormal. Learn about these horrifying experiences and how they scarred lives forever. Explore the dark supernatural world around you—if you dare!

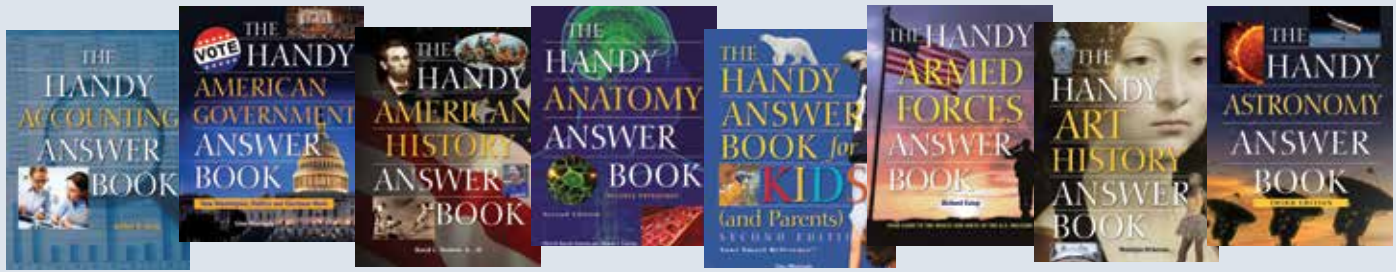

Richard Estep is the author of more than 30 books, including Visible Ink Press' Serial Killers: The Minds, Methods, and Mayhem of History's Most Notorious Murderers; The Serial Killer Next Door: The Double Lives of Notorious Murderers; Family, Friends and Neighbors: Stories of Murder and Betrayal; and Grippers, Frauds, and Crooks: True Stories of American Corruption. Additionally, he's written numerous paranormal nonfiction titles, including The Horrors of Fox Hollow Farm: Unraveling the History & Hauntings of a Serial Killer's Home. He is a regular columnist for Haunted Magazine and has also written for the Journal of Emergency Medical Services. Richard appears regularly on the TV shows Haunted Case Files, Haunted Hospitals, Paranormal 911, and Paranormal Night Shift. British by birth, Richard now makes his home a few miles north of Denver, Colorado, where he serves as a paramedic and lives with his wife and a menagerie of adopted animals.
